A crowd of several thousand persons gathered in City Hell park and cheered Weston as he started briskly away escorted by a detachment of twenty men from Company B, of the Seventh regiment, headed by a band. The soldiers had a hard time keeping up with the fast gait the griszled old walker set, but they stuck to it from the post office to Seventy-second street. Relays of mounted police met Weston at various points along the route uptown and escorted him to the city linits, where the Yonkers police performed similar service.

Weston expects to walk to Tarrytown tonight, a distance of thirty miles, and stop there until morning. Dressed in a heavy dark blue jacket, blue trousers and leggings and carrying a light walking stick, he was as lively as a boy at the star, and eager for the trip. The schedule Weston has mapped out will take him through Troy, Buffalo and Pittsburg. He is due in Chicago, Saturday, April 17. He expects to reach the Pacific coast July S.

One goal from the floor credited to the Cyclones was strenuously protested but without avail by Captain Brooks of Open House, who was not playing owing to injuries in playing in New London Saturday night. He claimed that the ball was passed out by a spectator, instead of player, enabling a Jewett City man to shoot a basket without opposition, but Referee Willis couldn't see it that way.
